The group originally started as a trio, with Tyler Joseph, Nick Thomas, and Chris Salih. However, after Thomas and Salih left in 2011, Joseph continued the project with Josh Dun, solidifying the duo that fans know today. Their breakthrough came with the 2015 album Blurryface, which included major hits like Stressed Out and Ride. The album's unique sound and introspective lyrics earned them international fame and a Grammy Award for Best Pop Duo/Group Performance.

Twenty One Pilots is an American musical duo from Columbus, Ohio, formed in 2009. The band consists of Tyler Joseph (lead vocals, piano, ukulele, bass) and Josh Dun (drums, percussion). Known for their eclectic blend of genres — including alternative rock, pop, hip hop, and electronic music — they have become one of the most distinctive acts in modern music.
